Between Us

So many Christmas cards from far and near, and surely none of them were more attractive than the one of little Genevieve Guardian standing by the lovely mantel in her home dressed in pajamas and taking a doll out of a well-filled stocking. We all have gifts we are proud of, but surely no one received anything that filled their hearts with more real pleasure than little Cliff Cannon's, who yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock, the ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Jack Anderson, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The church was decorated in all green and white with lighted white tapers casting a soft glow over the entire setting. Nuptial music was rendered by Miss Jeanette Thacker, organist, and Mrs. J. V. Chapman, soloist.

Miss Jane Reagan, foster sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, while Miss Louise DeLoach, of Tampa, was the matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Jeanette Thacker, Miss Mart Pierson, Miss Kitty Brown, Miss Lucille Ham, cousin of the bride, and Miss Margaret Anne Johnston, of Statesboro, Ga., and Miss Elinor Edmundson Ray, of Alpine, Tex., cousins of the bride.

A Royal Matinee Jr., a nephew of the bridegroom, served as ring bearer, little Miss Kitty Kilmer, a niece of the bride, being the flower girl. This meeting was designated as Ladies' Night. The speakers were Dr. R. J. H. DeLoach, of the Teachers College, and Dr. J. E. McCroan Jr., of Emory College, Valdosta. Dr. DeLoach presented the charter to the chapter with very fitting remarks. John F. Brannen acted as toastmaster.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Foy, Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Brannen, Mr. and Mrs. Inman Foy, Dr. and Mrs. John Mooney, Dr. and Mrs. Allen J. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Boston Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Beamon Martin, Dr. R. J. H. DeLoach and Miss Louise DeLoach, Jack Averitt and Mrs. J. B. Averitt, Harry Aiken and Miss Brooks Grimes, A. M. Braxwell Jr. and Miss Betty Smith, Gus Sorrier and Miss Imogene Dyer, Dr. J. E. McCroan Jr., R. L. Cone Jr., and the following pledged: Roger Holland and Miss Margaret Anne Johnston, Belton Braxwell and Miss Joyce Smith, Robert Lanier and Miss Dot Remington, Joe Robert Tillman and Miss Martha Evelyn Hodges.

All the bride's attendants wore chiffon dresses of similar design but of different shades.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Greene S. Johnston, of this city. All the guests were young people. The bride wanted Santa to bring him a BB gun, but Santa and Neicie were quite sure they had it. It wasn't the BB gun, but a BB gun for him at his age; so he decided on a train, and when Christmas came the bride was quite sure she had it. However, after enjoying all the toys, etc., the family began to open their gifts sent by friends, and all that time without saying so we think there must have been long for that gun. Imagine his extreme delight when he opened a gift and found that much-longed-for gun; but maybe he is like little boy Bill Clinton, who received an electric train and asked his mother after his father had played with his train all Christmas day, "What do you think father will be when he grows up?" Happy New Year and a year filled with more joyous than sorrows.—Will see you AROUND TOWN.

INCOME TAX RETURNS
Federal law requires a return to be made by every citizen, regardless of the amount of net income, if having a gross income of—
$750 if single for entire year, or
$1,500 if married and living with husband or wife for the entire year.
Returns for 1941 must be filed not later than March 15, 1942, but may be filed now.

I have been preparing returns for years, and am an expert; frequently I save taxpayers more than my charge. Reason of knowing how to prepare the returns and claiming all the exemptions allowable.

My regular customers will require all my time in March. Don't postpone this important return, but see me now, as there are severe penalties for failure to file by March 15.

THIS ARTICLE NOT FOR THE LADIES

If You Read It and Are Pleased, Don't Say You Were Not Cautioned

The article which follows is especially for male readers. Our lady friends will not be surprised to find that we caution them in advance. We know one lady, however, that it fits exactly like a glove—it may be you. We didn't write it for this lady, but the salesgirl, Sallie Lee (she is not a local individual, bear in mind), made the picture which we are passing along for men only. Again, ladies, don't read this story.

HERE'S WHAT BURNS ME UP

(By SALLIE LEE, Salesgirl.)

I enjoy meeting people—that's why I'm a salesgirl. But it takes all kinds to make a store, and some make me wish I'd studied to be a lady herself!

Nothing burns me up like the customers who chisel on returns: women who would be horrified at the ideal of shoplifting, returning garments that have been worn, soiled—or even bought at another store!—or have not been worn often after they get away with it just because they have charge accounts.

And the bird-brains who can't make up their own minds. So they have six dresses sent home. And a week later five come back!

At first, of course, the swank ones who high-hat you sort of get under your skin, but you soon get wise to their act and write them off as phonies. After all, there's nothing like shopping to bring out a woman's true character. And after six years in a retail store I'm convinced that it is just as hard to hide good breeding as it is to cover up bad breeding and bad taste. All you need is an hour behind a bargain counter to be able to pick out the genuine people from the counterfeiters. And I hope that burns some of them! Sure, most of my customers are swell—and I bet you are too. But just for fun, try answering the ten questions below and see where you stand:

1. Do you buy four or five similar articles in different stores, knowing you'll keep only one?
2. Do you shop without a definite schedule—"just looking"?
3. Do you smoke while shopping, scattering ashes on merchandise?
4. Are you careless with garments in the fitting room?
5. Do you make unreasonable demands just because you have a charge account? Be honest!
6. Do you stretch stockings over ringed fingers—or handle merchandise that is easily soiled?
7. Are you too lazy to carry small packages?
8. Do you barge in just at closing time—then wonder why you get haphazard service?
9. Do you high-hat salesgirls, treat them as inferiors?
10. Do you expect to put merchandise back where you found it and just drop it anywhere?

The score: Every "No" answer counts 10 points. You'll never have salesgirls giving you advance tips on bargains unless you score 100!

CROP-FEED LOANS NOW AVAILABLE

F. C. Parker is in Local Charge of Agency Which Disburses This Federal Fund

Emergency crop and feed loans for 1942 are now available to farmers in Bulloch county, and applications for these loans are now being received at 202 West Main street, Statesboro, by F. C. Parker, field supervisor of the emergency crop and feed loan section of the Farm Credit Administration.

These loans will be made as in the past to farmers whose cash requirements are relatively small and who are unable to obtain them from other sources, including production credit associations, loans in amounts sufficient to meet their needs.

The loans will be made to meet the applicant's cash needs in preparing for and producing his crops, or in purchasing or producing feed for his livestock. Mr. Parker pointed out that eligible farmers desiring to do so might apply now for loans to take care of their production needs for the entire 1942 season. Interest at the rate of 4 per cent will be charged only during the period the borrowed money actually has been used.

Farmers who obtain loans for the production of cash crops are required to give as security a first lien on the crops financed, or, in the case of loans for the purchase or production of feed for livestock, a first lien on the livestock to be fed.

TEMPLE HILL CHURCH

On Saturday, December 27th, at three o'clock in the afternoon members of Temple Hill church and several from Macedonia met at Temple Hill for a special farewell service for the pastor, Rev. H. S. McCall, retiring from the ministry, and to extend a welcome to the new pastor, Rev. J. R. Cannon. No program had been planned, so the afternoon was spent in the most informal way, which began by those first to arrive, singing Christmas carols.

We were fortunate to have both the retiring and the recently called pastors present. Mr. McCall opened the service with the song, "Joy To The World," followed by joint prayer by both pastors. After a brief talk he expressed pleasure and gratitude at the co-operation given him and at the progress the church has made in his years of serving.

The program was then given over to the new pastor, who talked earnestly of his desire to serve the church that has put its trust in him as a leader, and of his future plans as pastor. After that he turned it into

Donkey Basketball Game At Register

Pop-eye, Peanut, Mac West, Tornado and Dixie are some of the ten trained donkeys that will put on a show at the Register gymnasium Saturday night. The feature of the evening will be the donkey basketball game. There will be two teams of local young men playing basketball from the backs of the "Frying W" Ranch trained donkeys.

A team composed of Herbert Powell, Hilton Banks, John Moore, Jerry Stephens and Erastus Atkins will play against the regular Register High School team.

Immediately following the game there will be two extra acts. Micky Mason's trick dog will jump a rope and say its prayer; and there will be bicycle stunts on all sorts of ingenious cycles.

This promises to be the most laughable entertainment of the year.

BULLOCH TIMES AND STATESBORO NEWS

They Asked For This

Somewhat more than twenty years ago World War I was brought to a conclusion by the overthrow of the German plunders.

"Will Find You Out"

THIS ARTICLE is not going to be a sermon; the pulpit is the place to deliver sermons; but there are so many common occurrences in everyday life which impress us with the truth of that Scriptural statement, "Be sure your sins will find you out."

A young stranger was driving through Statesboro at a high rate of speed. At an important street intersection he collided with another car and there was a serious wreck. The stranger fled. His conduct advertised him as an outlaw, and the officers followed. He was arrested some minutes later.

We walked past a physician's office a few weeks ago as an automobile was turning away in which were two young persons, a man and a woman. They were strangers to us, and their identity is still unknown.

He didn't go into particulars about these young persons, but he did add the positive declaration, "God's laws are immutable; the truth needs no repetition. Be sure your sins will find you out." If they get past today, they must pay tomorrow.

Two unmarried persons were found dead in a road house in Bulloch county within the past few days. They were a very young man and woman. They had taken every precaution to hide their secret; they had closed themselves from the eyes of disapproving men and women. When the door of their hiding place was opened the whole story was told—and they had told it with their lives. More and more has sprung up the theory that what men and women choose to do, is only their business. This theory loses sight of the truth that society as a whole is vitally concerned as to the conduct of every individual member of its wide circle. Not a sparrow falls that its fall is not noted; not an evil occurs but that society is scarred by its occurrence.

"Be sure your sins will find you out." In business it is as true as elsewhere. A young man in business here as representative of a national enterprise had authority to do some advertising in our newspaper on a 50-50 scale, he to pay half and his company half. Blatantly he proposed to this newspaper that we should make

In spite of freezing weather and a little sleet thrown in, we can't help but be a little spring conscious; and the past week has given us a little peek into what will be worth this spring in our town. The loveliest new suits, dresses, coats and even wash dresses have just gotten here. After wearing winter clothes for several months the new colors of bright hues and no large size. One thing we can't let worry the mind of the very young in the fact that Hitler has just been elected president of Germany. We are from the United States to let them feel we are being dominated by him. So, the past week found Genevieve Mathews being entertained at the Woman's Club room on her birthday. And the older ones of us may wear the old fashioned hats and coats. But not that old-fashioned seven-year-old record. They really looked like children's fashion plates, and with so many parties they are well versed on party behavior. About the best story goes this week to one of our most popular, who came to work very much disturbed over the war, having heard from that his colored friends had fallen to the Japs. She asked if he knew where she could get a good rifle. After some questioning the maid said she wasn't going to let the Japs walk on her without warning, and very quickly said, "They have already taken Manila, Fla. So, if that were the case we would all be hunting rifles." At the parties lately the hostesses have been keeping in mind the defense movement, and the past week found Ulma Smith and Marion Johnston giving Defense Stamp as prizes, and Mrs. Roy Riney gave the money prizes to the Red Cross. So you see, even though we are entertaining we still keep in mind helping our country. We can't do away with our social contacts. Harry Hopkins, when approached on the subject, told an inquirer from Savannah to keep up our social affairs, but on a smaller scale and to ever keep in mind the great need of the nation. For writing the most appropriate lines on Hitler, Dr. M. E. Pittman received Burma shawing career; Fielding Russell was given shaving lotion in the guessing advertisement game; for guessing nearest the number of grains of corn in a jar, J. L. Renfro was a jar of candy, and Rev. H. L. Sneed was given a big stack of candy for missing the number furthest. Mrs. Deal was assisted in serving and entertaining by Mrs. Stothard Deal. Covers were placed for Dr. Pittman, Mr. Russell, Mr. Renfro, Rev. Sneed, D. B. Turner, Dr. Ben Deal, J. E. McCroan, R. J. Kennedy, Judge T. J. Evans of Sylvania, Lowell Mallard, Joe Tillman and Stothard Deal.

ROTARIANS HEAR TALK ON DEFENSE

Prince Preston Tells Members Statesboro May Be Easy Bomb Target

With defense measures commanding increasing thought locally during the setting-up program of various defense activities, Statesboro Rotarians were again given a solemn warning of danger at the weekly luncheon Monday.

The speaker was Prince H. Preston, associated in an official capacity with the volunteer defense police system which has been placed under the supervision of Deputy Sheriff Bill Strickland and Police Chief Edgar Hart. Specifically, Mr. Preston pointed out a discussion of the reasons for the training program which is now being carried on. He explained that it is far better to have taken the training and not need it than to neglect training and wish it had been taken.

Speaking in all solemnity, Mr. Preston assured the people of Statesboro that an air raid over Statesboro is not at all an impossibility; not even in improbability, he said. He explained that an airplane carrier somewhere in the Atlantic ocean, of a starting place for bombing planes, would start them inshore at a possible speed of 400 miles per hour. A plane flying at that speed, he said, would need to make a circle of fifty miles or more in turning around. Thus, he explained, bombers attacking Savannah would easily make the interior as far as Statesboro in making their return flight.

Mr. Preston stressed the importance of every citizen observing the rules prescribed in event of raid. The first requirement, he said, is that everybody shall get under cover. No person should be permitted in the open at a target failure to comply with this requirement would call for drastic action on the part of police on the various bays.

Mr. Preston announced that Statesboro has already been divided into wards and policemen have been assigned posts in their respective wards. Weekly drills are being held, and it is the part of wisdom, he said, that every citizen should share in this preparation. "If there is a raid," he said, "the practice won't do any harm."

Incidentally Mr. Preston mentioned the recent instance when a stranger passing through Statesboro sought to obtain a certificate which would entitle him to pass westward. It was recognized that the stranger was an Italian. The fact was pointed out by a policeman, and there it was disclosed that the man had deserted from an Italian ship in port and was being vigorously sought by the police for detention. Here he explained that he planned to proceed to Mexico. This is one important phase of defense action, Mr. Preston explained.

Erastus Brannen and Miss Uble Lanier were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Love Lanier, near Metter.

Fire Chief Cumming has ordered hook and ladder equipment for the volunteer fire department; will reduce, it is said, insurance rates 20 per cent.

The marriage of Dan N. Riggs and Miss Edna Wilson was solemnized Sunday afternoon by Judge E. D. Holland at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilson.

On account of frozen water pipes the range in the P. N. Grimes home was demolished by an explosion Sunday morning, entire contents of the kitchen and the cook jumped out the pantry window.

Brooks Simmons Company is being re-organized with capital stock increased from $100,000 to $125,000; J. E. McCroan becomes stockholder and general manager; T. J. Denmark will succeed McCroan as cashier in the First National Bank; modern new quarters on West Main street.

Dr. J. T. Rogers has moved his office over the Sea Island Bank in the Simmons building.
